

Vets News - March 2025

Trevor Bell Memorial Shield

This inter club competition gets underway on April 7 at Wollongong.

All the best for a successful season for the KGC squad.

Kiama - Mollymook Challenge

This will also occur on April 7 at Mollymook - an unfortunate clash with the first round of the Trevor Bell Shield game.

Check out the sheet on the vets notice board to express your interest in participating in this event.

The format will be a 2 person Ambrose.

Hitting The Ball With A Practice Swing - Part 2

On The Putting Green

There is no penalty and the ball must be replaced on its original spot (Rule 13.1d)

This rule also applies to accidentally causing the ball to move on the putting green in any other way.

Same applies to accidentally moving a ball marker.

On The Tee

There is no penalty and you can tee up again with the same ball or another ball. (Rule 6.2b)

(This actually happened to Zac Johnson at the 2019 Masters)

A Ben Hogan Quote On The Champions Dinner

"The last years champion serves as the host. He chooses the menu and picks up the tab. When I discovered the cost of the dinner was more than the prize money, I finished second four times".